SYMPTOMS.
Slight pain in the side, the skin and eye assume a thick yellow coat, digestion is impaired, an unpleasant sinking sensation at the pit of the stomach is experienced, the bowels are irregular, the mind fretful, the memory weakened, sometimes a slight cough, coldness of the hands and feet, sometimes loss of appetite and at others unnatural craving for food, dizziness of the head, depressed spirits, feeling of uncertainty, of having left something undone, but can't tell what it is. Take Simmons' Liver Regulator, it will remove all unpleasant feelings and make you well. mildewly.

GREAT FORTUNES.
Great fortunes are not easily acquired in these days of sharp competition and close trachery. Even when they are acquired, they too often find the possessor a mere wreck, having made a drudge and slave of himself by toiling incessantly for that which he is permitted to hold for a few brief months before he is laid away in the grave. We must confess that in this view of the case, the "Great Henderson Co., Ky. Prize Scheme" has powerful attractions for even the most staid. Here are great fortunes, to be won without haggard toil, and the whole secured by a legal champion, and in the hands of men of most undoubted integrity. We are ready to aid any of our friends who may command us, in securing tickets or information about this matter. my 24

A New York preacher says that "no man who uses spirituous liquors can get to heaven." Of course he meant such extraordinary poison as is retailed in the Empire City. In view of the undeniable excellence of the old whiskeys, pure brandies, sparkling wines, and creamy ales sold by Pat Fitzgerald, of the Sun Flower saloon, no Cairo preacher has ever ventured a like declaration. Indeed, we have heard men say that everybody who patronizes Pat's beverages is immediately possessed of a serenity of soul, a christian fortitude and resignation, that make this mundane sphere of ours as good a heaven as he cares about. That everybody may share in this felicitous Pat has fixed the price of his incomparable Cincinnati lager beer at 5 cents a glass, and everything else at about half what it is really worth.
The finest Billiard Saloon in Southern Illinois can also be found in connection with this popular establishment. tf.
